Prof. DALE'S PERSIAN Horse and Cattle Powders,

DROF. DALE WAS A DISTINGUISHED Veterinary Surgeon of England, and graduated with the highest honors in the most celebrated Veterinary School highest honors in the most celebrated Veterinary School of Eurape. After completing his education, he traveled extensively in the East, through Arabia, Persia, and Turkey, those countries where the horse is seen in his highest and most perfect condition, for the purpose of making observations with regard to the management and treatment of horse, both in disease and in leadth, by the inhabitants of the original climates of this noble and useful animal. While in Persia, is management in the reserves of the he was rewarded in his researches by the discovery of the above valuable competind, which he found the Persians ad-ministered in almost all cases of discuss of their horses, either long or in conjunction with other remedies. The surprising success that attended its administration led him to investigate the principles upon which its great remedial virtues were founded, and was the means of revolutionizing his whole ideas with regard to the treatment of diseases in horses. Previously to this time, bleeding and purging, and other depletory means, was the universal custom, both with the scientific d the would-be "horse-doctor."

But the motive of the present age is ONWARD! cold stervotypes purious, which have nothing but their cartiguity to recommend them, are fast giving way, as their absurdities are proved by the warching investigations of science. The steam car, the railroad, the magnetic folegraph, are revolutionizing the earth. And while the human mind has been busy in every department of the Physical Sciences, producing results which have estembed the world, think you that Medicine is the only order which has stood still. Are see no wiser than were our fallers: Has the accumulated researches of the minetoenth century thrown no light upon the Practice of Medicine?

We do not say that every single case of Consumption (at an oddeness singe, and where the patient has a scredibing constitution) can be sared; but we been a that where the general health tion) can be erred; but we receive that where the general health of the system is not fatally disordered, and where there is sufficient vital energy left, Communican is as carefide as any other faces: Patients occasionally die of Billions Ferry, yet we account it a conside disease, because the asympty, if treated right by, recover. So we say of Consumption. By the timely admisation of Dr. Wm. Hell's Bulsam for the Langs every versal was can be specially and theoretish cared; and through all the various stages of the complaint, from a simple Cough or a neglected Cold down to the most hopeiess case of confirmed tubercular Consumption.

Being the latest improvement in our profession, and having been sufficiently tested to warrant its utility, we take pleasure in recommending it as being far preferable in many respects to any other base heretofore used. It can be used in many instances where all other materials fail. No one need, therefore, despair. Call on me, give me your work and I will demonstrate these facts. Remember that a full set of teeth on this method cost only half what they would on gold, and yet preferable in all respects.
